Dear Seventh Grade Students and Parents:

Welcome to seventh grade English! This summer, as in summers past, 7th grade students will be required to read three books to fulfill the summer reading requirement. All books must be read by Thursday, August 15th, and both students and parents will sign the 2019 Summer Reading Program Contract to pledge completion of all three books. By signing the contract, parents approve their child’s selections for the books of choice.

The specific 7th grade summer reading requirements are summarized below.

2. Read one student-selected, parent-approved fiction book. Fiction writing is created from an author’s imagination; fiction is not true even though it may contain real people, places, or events.

4. Choose one of the mini-project options for The Giver. Bring the completed assignment to turn in on Thursday, August 15, 2019.

5. Turn in the completed and signed 2019 Summer Reading Program Contract and the assignment for the required book on Thursday, August 15, 2019.

Your English teacher will assess your understanding of the assigned English title through both the mini-project and a test during the first week of school. There will be a deduction in your grade for each day the summer reading assignment is late. If you have any questions, you may contact Ashley Kuehne (akuehne@wesleyanschool.org), Jamie Hemken (jhemken@wesleyanschool.org), or Anna Holloway (aholloway@wesleyanschool.org).

Have a safe and happy summer, and enjoy your summer reading!

Sincerely,

7th Grade English Teachers
